THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 15.

Mount Vernon Avenue .- According to announcement a meeting of those interested in the construction of an avenue from in the construction of an avenue from Washington to Mt. Vernon was held at the Opera House, in this city, this evening The meeting was precided over by Mayor J. B. Smoot and Messrs. M. B. Harlow, of this city, E. W. Fox, of Washington, J. E. Clements, of the county, and W. Gillingham, of Fairfax, were chosen secretaries.

Mayor Smoot, on taking the chair, said he felt complimented in being called to preside over a meeting assembled to inau gurate such a scheme as the building of a grand avenue from Washington to Mt. Vernon, and thought such an undertaking feasible.

On motion of Mr. M. B. Harlow, Mr. E. W. Fox addressed the meeting. Mr. Fox then explained the plans of building the avcaue, said it would be the grandest avenue caue, said it would be the grandest avenue in the country, and read a letter from Gov. Foraker, of Ohio, approving the plan.

Speeches alvocating the building of the avenue, and promising aid, were also made by Messis. Frank Hume, N. W. Pierson, J. M. Troth, M. B. Harlow, J. R. Caton, D. A. Windsor J. H. Kintz, Judge Gray and oth

A resolution was adopted directing Mayor Smoot to appoint a committee of twentyone, to be composed of culzans of Alexan Mayor of Alexandria, to be known as the executive committee, which committee shall have full power to perfect all arrangements for the furtherance of the scheme.

The Mayor was given ten days or two weeks in which to appoint the committee and amounce their names through the pub-

Mr. M. B. Harlow was elected temporary trea-Mr. M. R. Harlow was elected temporary treasurer and $2.10 was subscribed towards paying the expenses of a survey of the proposed avenue.

After some conversational debate and after those present had signed their names in a book to be kept by the accretary, the meeting adjourned, above to the call of the chairman.

The meeting was well attended, many influential near from Washington city, Fairfax and Alexandria counties being present, besides a large number of Alexandrians.

In their march to the depot to-day the company was followed by many of their friends, several of whom went on to Philadelphia with them. They will return on Saturday.

> DEATH OF BALLARD E. DODD .- On Monday last Brother Francis of Sales, well known to many of our citizens as Ballard E. D.dd, a young man from Norfolk, who was for several years a cadet, and after-wards a junior teacher at St. John's Academy, died at the Novitiate of the Brothers of the Christian School, Annandale, Md. He joined that society several years ago, giving up for the purpose a claim to a large property, but has been in very bad health

WILL PROBATED .- The will of the late Mes, Margaret M. Stewart was admitted to probate in the Corporation Court to day. The deceased bequeaths all her interest in the estate of her late husband, J. W. Stewart, in equal divisions to Rev. J. C. and Miss Emma S. Stewart, and to the latter all of her personal effects. Rev. J. C. Stewart is named as executor of the will, which is dated Nov. 13, 1885.

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.-The represent ative of the contractors for the iron work, the Mount Vernon Bridge Company, says that the Aqueduct bridge will be completed by the specified time, October 21. Many people, however, think this is almost impossible, but Mr. Wynkoop, the firm's agent, diclares that it will be done. The approaches are being completed steadily and will be ready in time the bridge is finished.

THE FLATS IMPROVEMENT .- The work upon the Potomac flats, shown by the August report, had up to the close of that mouth redeemed 461 acres. About one half of the tidal reservoir has been dredged to the depth of eight feet. The embankments of the tidal roservoir are now to high water mark. The coffer dam work is in better condition than last month.
